

Marco Melchior

Sound Technician

Sound technician Marco Melchior has over ten year's experience as a sound engineer. Internationally, he has worked with artists from various disciplines, including Carolyn Carlson, Gavin Bryars and Horacio el Negro. Since 2004, he has been personal sound engineer to the internationally renowned Brazilian singer Rosa Passos.

Melchior has long-term collaborations with major festivals, such as the Venice Biennale, DMT and Umbria Jazz. He has also recorded live albums for Roy Hargrove, Dave Brubeck and many Italian artists. Melchior has been working as a sound technician for Tero Saarinen Company since 2004.

www.marcolive.it